Thank you: as we come to the end of another calendar year, I would like to thank those who have given of themselves for the parish and school to keep the mission of Christ centered in our community. Thank you for your cards, donations and gifts of goodies and prayers for me as we embark on a new year. Much has been accomplished and provided for our Catholic faith and teaching so you have given glory to our new born savior during this past year. I appreciate your support, prayers and generosity given and may our Savior reward you in all ways. Merry Christmas—Fr. Medina

Sunday Masses:

All dispensations, obligations and guidance of the previous DECREE of 21 August 2020, originally effective until 27 November 2020, shall now be extended until further notice.

1. All the faithful of the Diocese of Jefferson City, and those who are present in the territory of the diocese, are therefore dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and holy days of obligation until further notice, provided that for days of precept they do one of the following:

- Prayerfully participate in the Sunday or holy day of obligation Mass live streamed from their parish church or chapel, the Cathedral, the Vatican, or of any Mass of the day celebrated in communion with the Roman Catholic Church.
- Prayerfully read and meditate on the readings of the Mass for the Sunday or holy day of obligation, and recite the rosary or Divine Mercy chaplet.
- The faithful still have the obligation to keep the Lord's Day holy and "to refrain from engaging in work or activities that hinder the worship owed to God, the joy proper to the Lord's Day, the performance of the works of mercy, and the appropriate relaxation of mind and body" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2185)
- Celebrations of penance services, as well as other seasonal services that entail extra gatherings of the faithful apart from Mass, are to be avoided. Instead, parish priests are asked to make themselves more available, even on a daily basis during the last week of Advent, to hear the confessions of the faithful.
- Whenever possible, the faithful should present themselves to their parish priest for the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick before they depart for the hospital. Because of pandemic protocols at hospitals throughout the diocese, priests may not have access to patients at the hospital.

This decree is effective from 28 November 2020 and until further notice, anything to the contrary notwithstanding

After a lot of prayerful thought, I have decided to retire. I will be leaving in January of 2021. I have come to realize that it is time to continue my life's journey. The almost 15 years I have been here have left me with many wonderful memories, friendships, a stronger faith and has shown me what a true Catholic Community is, I am and will always be grateful.

Thank you to Fr. Medina for being a wonderful boss who has taught me so much and always showed me kindness and compassion. To the faculty and staff at St. Stanislaus thank you for your friendship and kindness, the school is blessed to have you all. Thank you to the parishioners, for the patience, kindness and understanding you have shown me. I am proud and grateful to have been your parish secretary. I will remember St. Stanislaus fondly. I wish all of you many blessings in life.

With Gratitude
