2022 Parish Council Candidates

Our Election will be held at the Masses the weekend of July 30 & July 31.

My name is Eric Jaegers and I've been married to my wife, Tiffany, for 14 years. Our two children, Charlie and Chloe, are entering the seventh and fifth grades respectively at St. Stanislaus School. I've been active with both our school and our local Knights of Columbus Council. I graduated from Columbia College with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and I'm employed at Central Electric Power Cooperative in Jefferson City.

My name is Justin Korsmeyer, and I am a life-long member of the St. Stanislaus parish. I grew up in Wardsville and attended K-8th grade at St. Stanislaus School, where my son is also now a student. My family and I attend Mass and tithe regularly. I have been an active steward of the parish through ushering Masses, weekly Perpetual Adoration, and chairing the Parish Fall Suppers and Summer Picnics for the past 2 years, as well as attending and volunteering at other various parish events and programs. I believe I would be able to offer a unique perspective as a member of the St. Stanislaus Church Parish Council, and would greatly appreciate your consideration for this role!

My name is Peggy Luebbert and I have been a member of St. Stanislaus Parish for 68 years. My husband Donnie and I have been married for 48 years. I attended St. Stanislaus School and Blair Oaks High School as did our three children. I have both a bachelor's and a master's degree in English education. I taught sixth grade for two years at St. Francis Xavier School, Taos. Then I taught high school English for 30 years at Blair Oaks High School. After retiring I served nine years on the Blair Oaks School Board in the capacity of member, treasurer, vice president and president for three years. Wardsville is a wonderful place to live, and I firmly believe that St. Stanislaus is one of the main cores of the community. I would welcome the opportunity to serve on the Parish Council.

My name is Emily Mantle and I am a life-long parishioner of St. Stanislaus Church. My husband Darrell and I are active members of the parish. We have two children, Lainie, a sophomore in college, and Landon, a sophomore in high school. I have a bachelor's and master's degree in Business Administration. I recently accepted the position of Marketing Director for Capital Region Medical Center, following my role as Executive Director for the Missouri League for Nursing. In addition to my administrative healthcare background, I hold certifications in Compassion without Fatigue training, Trauma-Informed Care training, and Designing Programs for Results. I have served St. Stanislaus in various capacities, including the school board advisory committee, home and school, technology auction, and parish council.

Please see the back of this page for more candidates.

My name is Cindy Markway and I have been a member of St Stanislaus parish for 22 years. I am married to Gabe Markway, our son Bridger just graduated from St Stanislaus this past spring and will be attending Helias High School. I served on the St Stanislaus Home and School committee, I served as secretary on the School Advisory Board for 2 years and help facilitate the opening of the St Stanislaus School Store. I participate in perpetual adoration and have served at several women's retreats at St Stanislaus. Even though my son is no longer attending St Stanislaus, I still feel the need to continue to serve my parish.

My name is Sue Rackers. I have been a member of the St. Stanislaus parish for nearly 30 years. I am married to a life-long parishioner, Jeff Rackers, and we have two sons, Evan and Peyton. I have been active in the parish in a number of ways including serving on Home & School, School Board, and assisting with PSR and confirmation classes. I am committed to this parish and will do my best to serve this community if elected.

My name is Delores (Riegel) Rose. Many of you know me as "Dee" Rose. Raised in nearby Osage County, I have always been active in my church and community. My husband and I joined the St. Stan community nearly 11 years ago when we moved back to mid-Missouri from the East Coast. I have worked for both non-profits and for-profits as well as state and local government. Professionally, I practiced office management, communications, community relations, and marketing. I retired last year and feel incredibly blessed that I can attend daily mass regularly. With my retirement, I have prayerfully considered my next steps and would love to use my time, talent, and experience as a member of our parish council. With your support, I look forward to serving.
